

AAMS' 13th Annual CME & CDE Las Vegas Getaway

The Armenian American Medical Society has organized a full day of educational and networking opportunities to take place at the beautiful Caesars Palace in Las Vegas. Attendees will be eligible to receive a maximum of (10) AMA PRA Category 1 CME Credit(s) and (6) CDE Credit(s).

Below is an example of one of the exceptional talks we have lined up for you:

Dr. Shant Shekherdimian was born and raised in Los Angeles, California. His educational background includes a medical degree from Drexel University in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and a Masters in Public Health with an emphasis on global health from the University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA). Dr. Shekherdimian has completed a residency in general surgery at UCLA and a fellowship in pediatric surgery at the Hospital for Sick Children in Toronto, Canada. He is currently an Assistant Professor of Surgery at UCLA. Dr. Shekherdimian's clinical interests include neonatal surgery and pediatric surgical oncology. His research interests are in intestinal lengthening as a potential treatment of short bowel syndrome. Dr. Shekherdimian has participated and lectured at several international conferences pertaining to his surgical specialty and public health. He is involved in several projects with the aim to improve pediatric care in Armenia, including spearheading a novel model of effective diaspora contribution to health care systems in home countries. Dr. Shekherdimian will be speaking on the following topic: "Updates in the Management of Appendicitis".

Target Audience: All healthcare professionals.
