

Dear member,

You may or may not be aware of a new movie called The Promise. "Brilliant medical student Michael (Oscar Isaac) meets beautiful dance instructor Ana (Charlotte Le Bon) in late 1914. Their shared Armenian heritage sparks an attraction that explodes into a romantic rivalry between Michael and Ana's boyfriend (Christian Bale), an American photojournalist who's dedicated to exposing the truth. As the Ottoman Empire crumbles into war-torn chaos, their conflicting passions must be deferred as they join forces to get themselves and their people to safety."

The Armenian American Medical Society feels very strongly about the historical significance and cultural value of this newly released motion picture, The Promise. We at AAMS are very excited about the upcoming premier of The Promise and are proud to help bring awareness to the world by supporting the producers' efforts with the aid of our strongest asset, our members.

This is truly a momentous occasion for the Armenian community. For the first time the Armenian story will be told to the world through the main stream media, and with such a huge star in Christian Bale, bringing awareness of Armenian history to millions of people.

We encourage you to please join your colleagues and fellow members on April 22, 2017 to see The Promise at the AMC Burbank 16, Auditorium 10 at 5:45 PM 125 E. Palm Avenue, Burbank, CA followed by a cocktail reception at the Market City Cafe 164 E. Palm Avenue, Burbank, CA.
