Dr. Edwin Babadjanian graduated from University of Southern California Dental School in 2005 and completed one year of intense general residency program at the VA hospital in San Francisco. After his general residency training he decided to specialize in endodontics. He was accepted in a two-year program at Lutheran hospital in Brooklyn, New York where he received an exceptional training in surgical and non-surgical endodontic dentistry from 2006-2008. Upon completion of endodontic residency, he found even more interest in the dual nature of root canals and implants. To better understand both fields he decided to complete a two-year implantology fellowship program at New York University from 2008-2010. Currently practicing in Glendale, California. Dr. Babadjanian will be speaking on the following topic: "Dental Implants vs Root Canal".

Dr. Narbeh Bandary is a board eligible Endodontist practicing in the La Crescenta-Montrose community, where he was originally born and raised. He pursued his interest in the study of Biological Sciences at the University of Southern California (USC) and continued at USC with his Graduate education and training as a Doctor of Dental Surgery (DDS). He then furthered his training at the University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA) in two different residency programs - first in Advanced Education in General Dentistry (AEGD), followed by his specialty Endodontics training, where he received his Endodontics Certification. Last year he opened his own private practice limited to specialty Endodontics. Dr. Bandary is known for his quality-centered and evidence-based treatment philosophy, and his attention to the many details in the field of Endodontics. Dr. Bandary will be presenting "The Value of Endodontic Microsurgery".

Dr. Emineh Khachian earned her DDS degree from the University of Southern California(USC) in 2004 and practices in her general and cosmetic dental office, Valley Village Dentistry, located in Los Angeles. She attended UCLA for her undergraduate degree, where she graduated with a major in Biology, and a minor in Armenian Studies. Dr. Khachian also did extensive cancer research and trials at the Jonnson Comprehensive Cancer Center, while at UCLA. Dr. Khachian's practice places a strong emphasis on conservative and cosmetic dentistry. Dr. Khachian will be presenting "Predictable Outcomes for Inlay and Onlays".

Dr. Armond Kotikian is a Board Certified Oral and Maxillofacial surgeon in private practice in Glendale, CA. Presently he is the Vice President of the Armenian American Medical Society. He completed dental school at UCLA. He then completed a 1-year residency in Hospital Dentistry at the Long Beach Veterans Administration Hospital. Subsequently, he pursued a residency in Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery. He earned his MD from Wayne State School of Medicine, did two years of general surgery and completed his Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery residency at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, in 2009. He is in private practice in Glendale and holds staff privileges at GAMC, Dignity Health GMH and Providence St. Joseph Medical Center. Dr. Kotikian is also an Assistant Professor at USC in the Department of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery. Dr. Kotikian specializes in complicated dental implant cases, wisdom tooth extraction, and office anesthesia. In the hospital setting he performs facial trauma reconstruction, orthognathic surgery (corrective jaw surgery), treats obstructive sleep apnea patients, treats patients with oral pathology lesions and performs oral and maxillofacial reconstruction. Dr. Kotikian is a member of numerous organizations, including the American Association of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgeons, California Association of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgeons and the Southern California Orofacial Academy. He routinely lectures on subjects related to his field at both the local and national level. Dr. Kotikian has been featured in the LA Times, Chicago Tribune, Glendale Newspress and many other local newspapers for his work in the field of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery. Dr. Kotikian has also been featured on CNN Headline News local edition, ABC 7 in LA and the Diane Sawyer nightly news on ABC. Dr. Kotikian will be speaking on the following topic: "Ulcerative Conditions in the Oral Cavity".
