

AAMS' 16th Annual CME & CDE Las Vegas Getaway

The Armenian American Medical Society has organized a full day of educational and networking opportunities to take place at the beautiful Bellagio Las Vegas. Attendees will be eligible to receive a maximum of (10) AMA PRA Category 1 CME Credit(s) or (6) CDE Credit(s).

Below is an example of one of the exceptional talks we have lined up for you:

Narineh Zohrabian, MD is a board certified dermatologist specializing in medical, surgical and cosmetic dermatology. She is a native of the Glendale/Pasadena area and has returned after her extensive years of training to serve this wonderful community. Dr. Zohrabian trained at the University of California, Irvine, Dermatology Residency Program, where she was the Chief Resident. She is a diplomat of the American Board of Dermatology, and a Fellow of the American Academy of Dermatology. Dr. Zohrabian received her Bachelor of Science degree graduating Cum Laude from UC, Irvine, and then moved on to Chicago Medical School where she obtained her medical degree graduating with the highest medical school honor of Alpha Omega Alpha. She subsequently completed an internship in medicine at Northwestern University prior to starting her training in Dermatology. Dr. Zohrabian strives to provide comprehensive dermatologic care in a professional and welcoming environment. She practices evidence based medicine, and implements the latest technologic and research advances to provide her patients with unparalleled care. Dr. Zohrabian enjoys combining her medical knowledge with the artistic nature of cosmetic dermatology to provide her patients with safe, effective, and natural-looking results. She will be speaking on the following topic: "Dermatology Pearls: The Good, The Bad, The Blistering".
