

What is the Future of Stroke Interview with Eric Tamrazian, MD

Dr. Eric Tamrazian, interest in Neurology started while he was an undergraduate studying Neuroscience at UCSB. He continued with graduate work at Boston University School of Medicine with his thesis work on Parkinson's disease. Afterward, he worked at Harvard Medical School for a few years conducting gene therapy research in ALS. Shortly after, he finished his medical degree at St. George's University and finished a residency in Neurology at Harbor-UCLA Medical Center. His interests in Neurology are vast, including Stroke, MS, Epilepsy as well as Neuromuscular Conditions.

Dr. Vicken Sepilian is a Reproductive Medicine specialist and is the founder and director of American Fertility Specialists Medical Group. He is double board-certified in Reproductive Endocrinology and Infertility, as well as Obstetrics and Gynecology. Dr. Sepilian has been an active member of the Armenian American Medical Society (AAMS) holding multiple leadership positions, including serving as the President from 2009 to 2013. Dr. Sepilian served as the Chairman of the 11th Armenian Medical World Congress and currently is the President of the Armenian Medical International Congress (AMIC), a nonprofit organization with chapters all over the world, with the aim of coordinating global efforts in improving healthcare in Armenia. Passionate about community education, in 2008, Dr. Sepilian launched the "Your Health" educational TV program aimed at sharing with the community the latest and most important healthcare topics. Since 2008, the show has been making house calls to tens of thousands of viewers helping educate them on preventative care and healthy lifestyles. In 2010, Dr. Sepilian, alongside other civic leaders and the former Mayor of the City of Glendale co-founded the Glendale Health Festival. Dr. Sepilian worked closely with city and state officials and local hospitals to organize this large-scale event with the aim to improve the health of the community. Dr. Sepilian is a strong believer that success and wealth are measured by life's experiences and human interactions and that true happiness and purpose are achieved by giving. Cherished memories include debates about life and death with Dr. Jack Kevoorkian, delivering pens to students in villages in Sri Lanka and teaching chess to orphans in Nepal.
